Course Description
This half-year course presents a survey of the Principles of Macroeconomics. In this course we look at the economy from an overall perspective, and address topics such as fluctuations in the level of economic activity, unemployment, inflation, economic growth, the exchange rate, the banking system, monetary policy, and government fiscal policy.

Required Text:

Course Website:
A website on OWL will be used to post materials relating to the course. This site is NOT to be used as a substitute for class attendance. Not everything we do is posted on the site and any material covered in the class is always subject to examination.

Course objectives
- The course aims to give students a grounding in the fundamental concepts of macroeconomics as they are used in making decisions both for business and policy makers.
- At the end of the course students should be able to critically analyze the major economic events that occur on a day to day basis.
- Students who are intending to pursue studies in business or political economy will gain the principles needed for further study.
COURSE OUTLINE

Topics:

4. Chapter 7. Financial Markets, Institutions and Interest Rates,

The above outline is subject to additions and deletions as well as changes in the order topics are discussed. All changes will be announced in class and will not necessarily be posted on OWL. It is incumbent on the student to keep abreast of any changes as the course progresses.

Certain topics and methodologies are discussed in class and do not appear in the textbook. Everything done in class is subject to examination regardless of whether it appears on OWL or in the text.

Assessment:

Midterm I………………….. 25%
Midterm II………………….. 35% NOT SRA ELIGIBLE
Final Test………………….. 40%

Midterm I will be held February 2 during class time
Midterm II will be held March 9 during class time

Final examination as scheduled by Registrar during the final examination period.

No makeup tests will be given. A student who misses a test must provide documentation to the counseling office (not the professor) and if this documentation is accepted as a valid reason for missing a test then (and only then) the weight of the missed test will be reallocated. This is the only method of accommodation for missed tests that will be used in this course. No make assignments will be given for missed quizzes.
Photography in Class – Please do not use smart phones to take pictures of slides or other material during class.
