Selected Topics in Psychology - PSYCHOL 2750E 550

Course: Theories & Methods of Cognitive Neuroscience

Instructor: Dr. Stephen Van Hedger

This course introduces the major research domains within cognitive neuroscience (e.g., memory, language, attention). In addition to surveying core topic areas, this course places a particular emphasis on the theories, experimental designs, and research methodologies that cognitive neuroscientists use to understand the biological basis of cognition.