Challenging our students to be LEADERS with heart

Huron AT WESTERN
Challenging our students to be LEADERS with heart

Huron University College, Western University’s founding institution, unites liberal arts with leadership, centred on an ethical core. We challenge our students to be leaders with a social conscience – to be leaders with heart.

1863 YEAR OF HURON’S FOUNDING, MAKING THIS UNIVERSITY ONE OF CANADA’S OLDEST

1,100 APPROXIMATE NUMBER OF STUDENTS

300 APPROXIMATE NUMBER OF FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS

30 AVERAGE CLASS SIZE

$1.5M IN SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID AWARDED BY HURON EACH YEAR

Established more than 150 years ago in London, Ontario, Huron University College predates Confederation and is Western University’s founding institution. Our diverse faculty in Arts, Social Sciences, and Theology are experts in their fields of study, internationally renowned, and committed to community. With expertise in areas ranging from social media behaviour, to school closures, to Islamic communities, Huron’s faculty is well-rounded, knowledgeable and happy to connect.
