This is a course that is designed to help non-native speakers of English develop the linguistic, rhetorical and strategic competencies that they will need to succeed in academic courses at the undergraduate level at Huron University College. It combines (1) an examination of the practical elements of rhetoric and style of academic writing (2) development of study, note-taking and writing skills through interactive project work (3) discussion of issues that are culturally relevant to a Canadian academic community, based on videos, listening tapes and guest speaker presentations. The course will be delivered in two lecture hours, twice a week. It is preliminary to, and designed to complement Writing 1021G.

Absences and Late Work

Because this is a writing course, and there are many small pieces of work to be submitted for grading, any work that is more than 5 days overdue without permission will not be graded. There will be a late penalty of 2 marks per day up to a maximum of 10 marks. Requests for extensions will be granted on a case-by-case basis and will only be considered if made before the assignment due date. Absences for more than 40% of the classes will result in a failure of the course. For work representing 10% or more of the overall grade for the course, a student must present documentation indicating that the student was seriously affected by illness and could not reasonably be expected to meet his/her academic responsibilities. Huron students should take their medical documentation to the Academic Advisor, Student Support Services at Huron University College, together with a Request for Relief specifying the nature of the accommodation requested. Documentation for non-Huron students must be submitted as soon as possible to the student's Faculty Dean's office. The request and documentation will be assessed and appropriate accommodation will be determined by the Dean's office in consultation with the instructor(s.) Academic accommodation will be granted ONLY where the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete his/her academic responsibilities.

For non-medical grounds, the student must submit a request to the instructor in writing prior to the due date of an assignment, and immediately in the case of a test. (Or as soon as possible following a non-medical emergency) Students are protected under the Official Student Record Information Privacy Policy and so written requests need only include a broad and general explanation of the situation, and the approximate length of time required. At the discretion of the instructor, the granting of extensions and rescheduled tests may require the student to submit supporting documentation to the Academic Advisor who will then make the determination as to whether accommodation is warranted."

Please see the Appendix for more information on Academic Accommodation for Medical/Non-Medical Grounds.
