

PHILOSOPHY

Think for Yourself

Huron
AT WESTERN

UNCOVER THE MEANING OF CORE QUESTIONS

WHAT IS CONSCIOUSNESS? ARE ALL ACTIONS DETERMINED BY OUTSIDE CAUSES?
WHERE DO MORALS COME FROM? WHAT CAN WE KNOW FOR CERTAIN?

The study of Philosophy provides many chances to think hard about these and other questions that can fundamentally change the way you view and interact with the world.

THE HURON ADVANTAGE

AT HURON, YOU WILL BE IN THE COMPANY OF EXPERT SCHOLARS AND STUDENTS WHO, LIKE YOU, AREN'T SATISFIED WITH ACCEPTING EVERYTHING AT FACE VALUE.

You'll discover what the great thinkers of the past and present have said, and you'll develop your own reasoned ideas in response. Our small class sizes and one-on-one faculty mentorship provide the ideal environment to explore the meaning of our experiences.

"For students who are looking to really challenge themselves, I would definitely say go for Philosophy. The ways the program forces you to think critically and engage in meaningful dialogue really open up your capacity for convincing argumentation. Philosophy teaches you to defend your convictions, without raising your voice, while also showing you there's a flipside to every viewpoint. Huron's small classes make for the perfect environment for Philosophical debate, as you get to hear everyone's opinion and know each person well enough to feel comfortable sharing your own."

MATTHEW HOOGSTEN | YEAR 3
Major in Philosophy

“Within Philosophy at Huron, you are really given the opportunity to learn and excel at imperative foundational skills. Beyond the incredible breadth and depth of knowledge offered through the program, it really serves you by enhancing your critical reading and thinking capacities, while sharpening your ability to argue. Not only do you develop these skills, which are the basis of any graduate program or career, but you do so within really positive, conversational learning environments. Pursue Philosophy if you really want to grow, as an individual and professional - not if you’re just looking to tick a box while getting your degree.”

TAYLOR HARRIS '13
Honours Specialization, Philosophy & Globalization
Graduate of Cambridge University
Associate, Hogan Lovells LLP

WHAT DO OUR GRADS DO?

Learning to analyze arguments and think for yourself is exciting. It is also a fundamental skill for Leaders with Heart who must know how to think critically, ask questions and relentlessly pursue wise and just answers. We've specifically designed our program to foster these transferable skills, so it's no accident many leaders in law, business and government have a background in Philosophy. Our grads have gone on to careers and studies in areas such as:

- Law
- Education
- Public Relations
- Policy
- Foreign Service
- Medicine
- Communications
- Investment Counselling
- Market Research
- Journalism
- Politics
- Biomedical Ethics

- English & Cultural Studies

“In Philosophy, you learn to identify, understand, and evaluate the fundamental principles that govern how we think about the most important things in our lives: knowledge, justice, meaning, virtue and wellbeing. Philosophical training makes you a better thinker by exposing you to a range of exciting ideas and honing your skills of critical argumentation. These improvements can help you live a better personal and professional life.”

DR. STEVE BLAND
Chair and Associate Professor, Philosophy

HURON & IVEY

In collaboration with the Ivey School of Business, Huron offers five-year combined degrees, in which students earn both an Honours Business Administration (HBA) degree and an Honours Specialization Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Philosophy.
