Prerequisites Required for this Course:
None

Course Outcomes:
Upon successful completion of this course, a student should be able to:

- Exhibit a deeper understanding of the character and content of the Christian theological tradition;
- Demonstrate an ability to explain the cultural and philosophical contexts in which Christian ideas have been, are, and might be formulated;
- Critically evaluate some of the strengths and weaknesses of a variety of theological standpoints, appreciating the importance of the specific literary traditions in which these standpoints are rooted;
- Engage in continuing study of systematic theology in the university setting.

Course Syllabus:

Course Description
This course provides an introduction to systematic theology by way of a study of a series of central themes in historical and contemporary Christian thought. The nature of theology, the doctrine of God, theological anthropology and approaches to the interpretation of scripture will be the particular foci, though a range of related subjects will be touched upon along the way.

Course Materials:

Weekly readings corresponding to the subjects to be covered in class are outlined in the syllabus, and you are expected to explore as much and as many of them as time permits. Two basic books, containing the main recommended weekly readings, are available for purchase at the UWO Bookstore:

Daniel Migliore, Faith Seeking Understanding

These books will also be on Reserve in the HUC Library. It is, therefore, not strictly necessary to buy books for the course.

Alternative Readings are also listed (note that these have not been placed on Reserve for this course), as there may be subjects that spark a special interest so that you will wish to borrow a book in order to read up on further. You could also read a selection of these texts rather than the textbook material (in fact, this is my recommended approach for more ambitious and able students), but note in this case that the readings may be less introductory.

Assignments & Method of Evaluation of Assignments:

Assignments/ Evaluation:

Assessment:

1. A mid-term, online examination (covering Sections I and II of the course), available on OWL in Week 8 of Term (20%).
2. Attendance and participation (10%).
3. A research essay of about 2000 words (TS2207F) or 3000 words (ST5103a) on a topic to be announced, due by November 30 (40%).
4. A final examination (30%). This will take the form of a take-home examination, which will be due by 9am on December 17.
Additional Statements:

1. Statement on Use of Electronic Devices during Tests and Exams
   It is not appropriate to use technology (such as, but not limited, to laptops, PDAs, cell phones) in the classroom for non-classroom activities. Such activity is disruptive and is distracting to other students and to the instructor, and can inhibit learning. Students are expected to respect the classroom environment and to refrain from inappropriate use of technology and other electronic devices in class.

2. Statement on Academic Offences: Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following web site: http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2014/pg113.html.

3. Plagiarism-detecting Software/Computer Marking:
   All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (http://www.turnitin.com).

4. Support Services:
   - UWO Registrar’s Office: http://www.registrar.uwo.ca
   - Huron’s Faculty of Theology, Office of the Dean:

5. Accommodation for absences:

a) Non-medical absences:
   Regular attendance at class is expected. Students who miss class without medical explanation (see 5.b below) will lose one mark for each class missed, to a maximum of 10%, unless clear explanation of extenuating circumstances can be provided. Non-medical explanations should be directed to the Instructor by email: gbadcock@huron.uwo.ca. Students who miss more than 50% of classes without adequate explanation may be failed.
b) Medical absences: See also the Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness —Undergraduate Students, at http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/handbook/appeals/medical.pdf

For work representing 10% or more of the overall grade for the course, a student must present documentation indicating that the student was seriously affected by illness and could not reasonably be expected to meet his/her academic responsibilities. Documentation must be submitted as soon as possible to your Faculty Dean’s office (Huron Arts & Social Science students should take their documentation to the Academic Counsellor, through the Academic Services Centre at Huron), together with a Request for Relief specifying the nature of the accommodation requested. The request and documentation will be assessed and appropriate accommodation will be determined by the Dean’s office in consultation with the instructor(s.) Academic accommodation will be granted ONLY where the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete his/her academic responsibilities.

The UWO Student Medical Certificate (SMC) and Request for Relief are available at the Student Centre website (https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm), Huron University College Academic Counselling website (www.huronuc.on.ca) or from the Dean’s Office or Academic Services Centre at Huron.
